Yulia Ilina
Junior Flutter Developer

I'm looking for an Intern/Junior Flutter Developer position in a team of flutter developers, whom I can learn from and be useful to. Remote or partially remote with the ability to attend the office in Barcelona. Currently combining programming studies with flutter mobile app development projects. I am ready to deep dive into work in development, improve my skills and gain experience.

Passionate about digital, tech, travelling, discovering cultures: I'm a spanish resident and british college alumni; & languages: I used to work in 5 languages in my hotel management and digital marketing past. Want to constantly improve my professional and personal skills and make a positive contribution to the community.
